	1,804	1,099	1,092	1,345	1,585

The amount of taxes appears higher in 1951 because of a double taxation caused by the uncompleted inclusion of the Landesgenossenschaftsbanken in the Deutsche Bauernbank.

Comment: It will be noted that DBB interest payments are to be lower in 1951 than in 1950. This comes about because the Kreissparkassen are no longer permitted to lend money to the Deutsche Bauernbank as heretofore. Up to 1950 they had been lending money to the DBB at 2.5 per cent., but the Deutsche Notenbank no longer permits this, more especially since the Kreissparkassen were, at the same time, being refinanced by the Notenbank. The inclusion of the Landesgenossenschaftsbanken within the Bauernbank, beginning in 1951, eliminates certain duplications in interest payments to the Bauernbank, thereby making total interest receipts smaller. Finally, the lending of money to the various Konsumvereine has been taken away from the Bauernbank and is now done by the Notenbank. The Saxony Konsum business, however, was being handled by the Notenbank, as an exception, even before the reorganization of the Bauernbank was initiated.
